

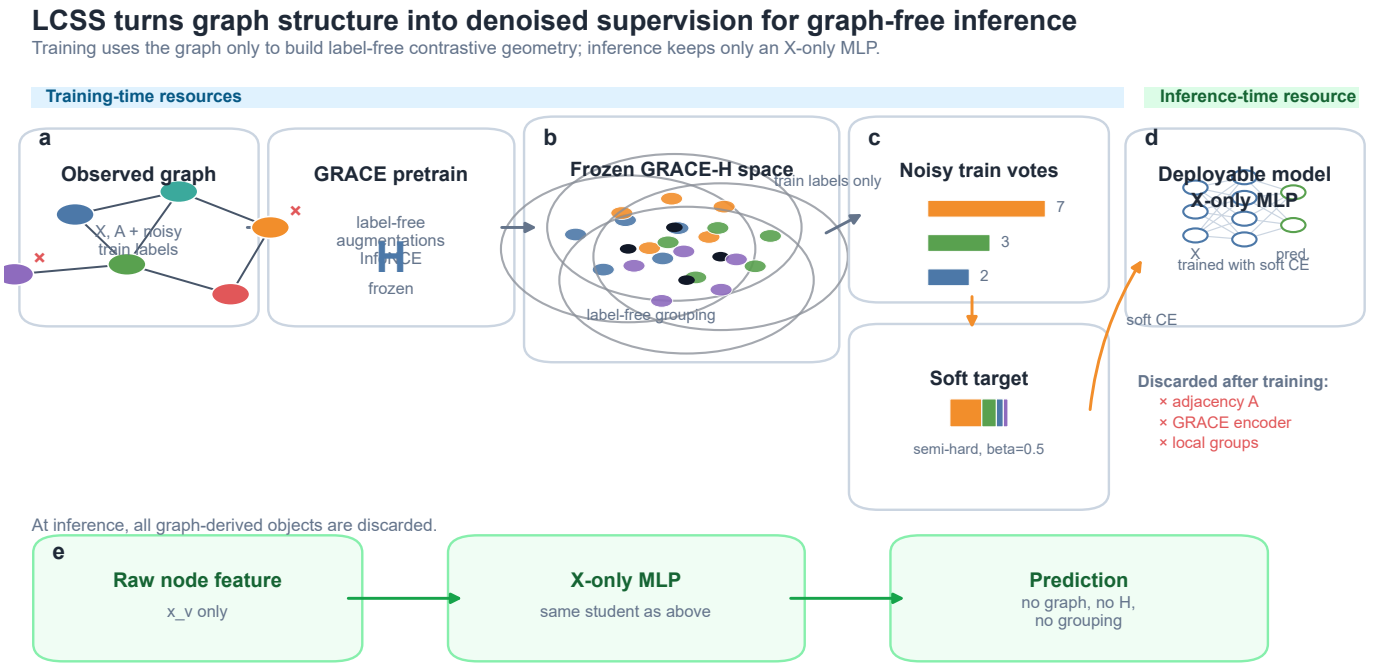

Fig. 1 | Local-consensus soft supervision (LCSS). The graph is used only during training to learn label-free GRACE representations and construct local consensus soft targets from noisy training labels. The deployed classifier is an ordinary MLP that takes raw node features only.